Community Officer Jim Lopez

- Ray asks- Commander meeting, Section 1, 1st Tuesday of each month
- Jack Asks- Drug dealing areas, has nothing to report due to undercover nature of drug investigations, however please email if there is a spot that looks active for dealing

Evans Bridge Project Update (Mara)

- Jack – Home Depo most likely has a monthly budget for donations, perhaps it is best to request at the beginning of the month.
- Maggie – Found the elusive “Bridge and Underpass” maintenance crew, alerted them to the bridge. Recommends meeting with Toney Jr. (of Broadway Maintenance District) to use his powerwashing equipment.

Jolon Clark’s Office (Council District 7)

Maggie was present from Jolon Clark’s Office and had the following updates:

- On Denverite - October meetings 4/5, about transit, pedestrian, planning
Iowa Underpass project has secured funding to make it ADA compliant, Sidewalk improvements, and more.

Jeff Walker RTD

Jeff Walker RTD Left a note about Bimer and art under the bridge near the Evans station

Andrew & Ronnie about Harvard Gulch Meeting

Andrew:

- Step one was to survey the existing flood plain, updating the one existing from the 1970’s
- The scope of the Harvard gulch project runs from Colorado to the S. Platte River
- Harvard Gulch is 1/3 of the project, Weir Gulch and Platte river sections also included
- There is a possible bike path connection down westly to connect Harvard Gulch Park to the Platte
- Army Core proposed plan has a bridge over Santa Fe, and signaled crossing of Broadway

Ronnie:

- Met several people from other neighborhoods within the study area
- Has a document of notes from Paul Bloede, who took meticulous notes from first and second outreach meetings
- Harvard Gulch Project website has been updated: www.Denvergov.org/DenverWaterways

Dan Horvat- Doctor Fix-it

- Shared a Rendering of proposed Building on Dr. Fixit property
